Chilwell explosion: Graves to be restored

The mass graves which contain the unidentified remains of over 100 workers killed in the Chilwell explosion in 1918 will be restored and rededicated as part of a week of events to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the disaster

The graves are in the grounds of St Mary's Church, Attenborough, and are marked by a series of flagstones and a small granite memorial with a blue plaque.

A new memorial consisting of raised beds and gravel paths has been designed by the Royal Engineers based at Chetwynd Barracks, Chilwell, the site of the explosion at the National Shell Filling Factory.

It will be built in time for a special Commemoration service at St Mary's on Sunday 1st July – 100 years to the day since the explosion.

The service will be attended by Bishop Paul Williams and civic and military dignitaries including the Lord Lieutenant of Nottinghamshire Sir John Peace.

©IWM (Q30036)

It will start with a parade led by the Nottinghamshire Band of the Royal Engineers.

The service will be the culmination of almost two weeks of events and activities to mark the anniversary including walks, talks, school visits, a performance of the play Swan Canaries at the barracks and a tea party with jazz band.

The original grave was marked with a wooden memorial cross which bore a wooden sword. The cross deteriorated and was removed after vandalism and the sword was taken and displayed in the Sergeants' Mess at Chilwell Barracks. A new cross will be installed, with a new sword, while the original will be returned Snacks and ladders

Since the summer of 2017, St Christopher's Church in Sneinton have been offering their local community a monthly evening of fun and food in the Church Hall.

The aim of the evenings are for the church congregation and members of the local community to really get to know each other – an easier task because of the table top games (ranging from the traditional Scrabble to the conversation-stirring Table Talk) and the home cooked meal.

It all began as an outreach particularly focused on young families within the church and on its fringes – the brainchild of Jayne Tunstall and Hannah Euliku, members of St Christopher's. However, when they staged some one-off family games evenings they discovered they were so popular that participants were asking when the next one would be held.

So encouraged by a grant from the Bishop's Social Eating Fund towards publicity and subsidising venue and food costs, it was decided that these evenings would become a monthly event on Saturdays. Before the evening was launched, members of the team, (now drawn from St Christopher's, the local Youth With A Mission household and The Salvation Army) carried out a survey at the weekly 'Growin' Spaces' social eating café (run by a member of the local community in the church hall) about what it should be called. Various ideas were put forward, but in the end 'Snacks and Ladders' won the day, the idea of Amy Smith – a local mum who is a regular at the café and now at the games evening.

Since then Snacks and Ladders has regularly seen around 40 people of all ages and backgrounds from both church and community at each gathering – even the evening when the photographer came and the snow was falling thick and fast!

It is sometimes a challenge to gather enough team members, but people from the local community have also been keen to get involved and it has really become a joint venture, with some deep conversations and higher levels of trust being built. God is definitely at work!

The dates for the summer term are Saturdays: 16th June, and 21st July, 5-7:30pm at St Christopher's Church Hall, Trent Road, Nottingham NG2 4FH. Volunteers to be team members especially welcome.

Church Growth and Planting Enabler

The diocese has appointed a Church Growth & Planting Enabler; the Revd Victoria Ramsey, who is presently leading a new worshipping community in Exeter, will support churches across the diocese as they continue to develop their own plans for ‘Growing Disciples: wider, younger and deeper.’

In addition to this Victoria will support churches of all sizes and traditions as they respond to opportunities to engage in planting and grafting New Worshipping Communities that will reach new people in fresh ways. This will include working with PCCs to review opportunities for growth, as well as helping train and equip lay and ordained teams to share in planting or grafting a new congregation/worshipping community.

Victoria was ordained in 2011 after studying at St Mellitus College, London. She served her curacy with the Exeter Network Church (ENC) and St Matthew’s Church Exeter. This training provided valuable experience of a range of traditions, and in 2015 she led a church plant from ENC into St Matthew’s and has been leading the church there since.

Before training for ministry, Victoria, who is married to Adrian with two children, was a speech and language therapist working with adults with a range of communication needs.

“I am absolutely thrilled to take on this new role and am so excited to join in with what God is doing in the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham,” Victoria said. “I look forward to working with a team that shares a vision for renewal and growth, through the equipping of the local church.”

Bishop Paul said: “I am delighted that we have been able to make a strong appointment into this important role in the diocese. Victoria will bring energy and valuable experience in helping parishes develop their local plans in sharing the good news of Jesus with people of all ages in their parish, and nurturing new disciples in our living faith.

Victoria is a natural team player who will help mobilise a range of people and gifts to take forward our diocesan plans in planting and grafting new worshipping communities, complementing our present ministry.”

Working alongside colleagues in the Discipleship & Ministry Team, and with Archdeacon Sarah Clark in her lead overseeing Church Planting and Grafting, Victoria’s role will also include teaching on the new licensed lay ministry training course in the Church Planting & Grafting Specialism.

from the barracks and displayed in the church.

The cost of the new memorial and the commemoration events will amount to about £20,000 and St Mary’s is busily raising funds to meet this target. If you would like to make a donation you can do so at: www.mydonate.bt.com/charities/attenboroughstmaryspcc

The Vicar of Attenborough, the Revd Jonathan Smithurst said: “The community is really coming together to mark this very significant event, much of which is taking place in an ancient church on what has been a site of Christian worship for over 1,000 years.”

Anyone who has any stories about the disaster should contact the Parish Office on 0115 9259602 or by email to office@attenboroughchurch.org.uk

More Men in Sheds as project continues to grow

There are now Men in Shed groups in Kirkby-in-Ashfield and Carlton, which recently opened at St Paul's Church, as well as a group in Hucknall which is working on a new shed.

Men in Sheds is a project set up to help men who are isolated, lonely, or going through major life changes. The 'sheds' are workshops where men can get together in a familiar environment to make things, drink tea and enjoy each other's company.

Nurture courses for Older People:

There are Alpha courses running at St John's Carlton and Bestwood Park Church. St Wilfrid's Calverton are following up the START course with Moving On.

If you are interested in starting a Men in Sheds Group or a Nurture Course for older people please contact Paul Howard - tel 1636 817232 or e-mail Paul.Howard@southwell.anglican.org

Sessions focusing on Faith and Dementia Awareness take place on 6th June 2018 (9:30-12:30pm) at Jubilee House, Westgate, Southwell, NG25 0JH. This session will look at the causes and effects of dementia and provide some ideas on how best the Church can support sufferers and carers alike, both within the church context and within the wider community setting. It will be facilitated by Paul Howard, (Diocesan Adviser: Older People), Dr Richard Turner, Mr Rowland Harris and Mrs Janice Ross.

To book your place please contact Catriona Gundlach Tel: 01636 817232 or e-mail catriona@southwell.anglican.org

Over the past couple of years a number of parishes in the Diocese have taken advantage of an opportunity to learn more about dementia through a talk approved by the Alzheimer's Society. This has proved to be very helpful to those caring for someone living with dementia, those diagnosed with the disease and also anyone looking to the future where they might be called upon to be a carer or when they or their friends or family suspect they may have the disease.

To arrange a discussion in your parish, contact Paul Howard on

01636 817232 or paul.howard@southwell.anglican.org

The Celebration of Older People service takes place at the Minster on 18th July. This will be a café style service in the crossing starting at 2pm.

Enjoying the beauty of the Lakes

It was lovely to greet David Goldstone when he arrived at Birmingham Airport at the start of his three month sabbatical in the Diocese. After settling in with his first host of the stay, he met with his other hosts and members of the Natal Link Group. He has also spent a weekend in the Lake District with the Men's Group from St. Margaret's in Aspley and will spend a week cycling the North Wales coast with another church group. He is also scheduled to join a discussion panel at an event marking the 100th anniversary of votes for women and the 90th anniversary of universal suffrage.

There is still plenty of space in David's diary. He will be joined by his wife on 23rd June, when she breaks up from teaching for the winter break.

If you would like to meet them or invite them to join you before their return on 23rd July please get in touch.

Sacrista Prebend Retreat House: A Quiet Space in the Heart of Southwell

During June and July Sacrista Prebend have a varied programme of events. Regular Communion services continue to take place on Mondays at 9am and Wednesdays at 12.15pm. Coffee and toast follow the Monday service, and soup, cake and coffee are available after the Wednesday service. All are welcome to join for worship and fellowship, and there is no need to book in advance.

There are several Quiet Days planned for the next two months, including a day spent reflecting on the beauty of God's creation, with a visit to the Potwell Dyke Grasslands, and a day in which to explore creative ways to pray.

Saturday 2nd June Creation Pathways Towards God

Robin Old and Kay Old

'If you want to know the Creator understand created things' advised Columbanus in the 6th Century AD. This quiet day is designed to encourage us to focus on the many Biblical passages about the created things, and to strengthen our prayer life. The Bible starts in a garden and ends in a garden city, and with its guidance we will tread ancient and modern pathways seeking a God who speaks through His creation.

In the afternoon there will either be a short, guided prayer-walk around the nearby Potwell Dyke Grasslands, or people can spend time alone in the peaceful and beautiful Sacrista Gardens. Strong footwear and appropriate outdoor clothing are advisable for either afternoon session.

Robin is a retired Baptist Minister. Kay has had training in Spiritual Direction. Both have led retreats and quiet days, and they are members of the working group dedicated to conserving the Potwell Dyke Grasslands in Southwell.

Saturday 23rd June Water, Wells and Waterpots: A day with the Woman at the Well of Samaria led by The Revd Canon Sylvia Griffiths

The gospels are full of stories where Jesus does the impossible and the extraordinary in the lives of individuals who came face to face with him.

On this Quiet Day, the Woman at the Well of Samaria, as she heard the words of Jesus, 'If only you knew the gift and the giver!' will be explored.

Reflections will focus around the wells that make up our lives, the water of life that Jesus offers and the call to a new and deeper relationship to the God who longs to give freely and lovingly to each of us.

The Revd Canon Sylvia Griffiths has spent over 30 years in parish ministry. She is chair of the Diocesan Prayer and Spirituality Committee and leads both courses on prayer and the training of Spiritual Directors for the Diocese.

Saturday 14th July Creative prayer – a Quiet Day with Sally Smith

Use your creativity to encounter God. A series of exercises will enable you to meet with God through making as well as having time to explore on your own. No artistic ability is required, just a desire to be with Creator God and to use the creative gifts he has given you (however small they may be).

Sally Smith is commissioning editor for the Bible Reading Fellowship publication, Quiet Spaces. She is experienced in leading quiet days, and enjoys creating spaces for prayer. She is a spiritual director in the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham.

If you would like to book a place on any of these events, contact: Sacrista Prebend, 4 Westgate Southwell Notts NG25 0JH 01636 816833 sacrista_prebend@btinternet.com

The cost of the Quiet Days is £20 including hot drinks throughout the day. They start with coffee at 9.45am and close with a cup of tea at 3.30pm. Please bring your own lunch.

Southwell Cathedral Chapter vacancy

The Chapter is the governing body of the Cathedral, responsible for the overall direction of mission, ministry, policy and finances. It operates in a similar way to a Board of Trustees and at Southwell Minster comprises the Dean, two residentiary canons, two elected representatives from the parish, one representative from the College of Canons and four other lay members. The Bishop and Dean are seeking to appoint a lay member with current financial expertise willing to serve initially for a three year period. This is an exciting time to be part of the missional opportunity in the Minster. If you think this could be your calling and gifting, please be in touch with Dean Nicola Sullivan dean@southwellminster.org.uk for further details.

Flat on offer from The Alexander and Caroline Simmons Trust

The Trustees of the Alexander and Caroline Simmons Trust are offering a first floor, two-bedroom flat within a small block of four flats, known as Upton Fields on Upton Road at the edge of Southwell. The flat is centrally heated with lovely views and a sunny aspect. There are gardens with fruit trees and a garage. Immediately outside the property is a bus stop.

The Trust gives priority to former clergy, their widows or widowers and Church workers of long standing (10 years) within the Dioceses of Southwell & Nottingham and Derby.

In the event of the Trust being unable to identify tenants who meet these priorities, the Trustees have discretion to let to other suitable persons who are in need by virtue of poverty.

The monthly contribution is £500 per calendar month and the Trust can provide assistance in making a claim for housing benefit. In certain circumstances further discretionary relief may be available. If you are interested and would like further information or to view the flat, please contact Katie Senior tel 01949 850384 or katieesenior@hotmail.com
